

Dragon's Tongue Macroalgae

Halymenia ssp.

By John Moyles

This red macro algae has long ribbon like strands forked with multiple tongues. They have a blood red body with new growth showing bright orange tips.

These algae are slow growing, non-invasive and do best when attached to rock/rubble. It is relatively hardy and will tolerate a vast range of light intensities.

